

SKYLINE HARVEST

An Eco Contemplative Center in the Sierra-Nevada foothills of California is seeking a HERMIT for a six month residency

Are you a person who wants to live close to the natural world, contributing your energy to the health of the land that sustains you? Do you love silence, solitude, the sigh of wind in tall pines and the sight of deer grazing outside your window? Do you want to live simply with a light footprint upon the earth?

Would you like to be in proximity to like-hearted people who are dedicated to transforming the world through transforming their own consciousness? Do you feel called to connect ever more deeply to your own true nature, inseparable from the nature of the Divine and the Cosmos?

Then perhaps you would like to share in an eco-contemplative life as a hermit on our 200 acres of forestland.
